

Research Supervisors & Scholars

The institution encourages a vibrant research culture by motivating faculty members to undertake research activities, pursue doctoral studies, guide scholars, and contribute to academic advancement. Faculty members actively participate in research supervision, publications, seminars, conferences, and collaborative academic projects.

Objectives

- Promote quality research among faculty and students
- Encourage doctoral and post-doctoral research activities
- Support publication in reputed journals
- Facilitate collaborative and interdisciplinary research
- Develop academic leadership and innovation

Major Activities

- Research guidance and supervision
- Faculty research publications
- Participation in seminars and conferences
- Minor and major research projects
- Collaborative research initiatives
- Research mentoring for students

View PDF: Research Supervisors List | Scholars Details | Research Publications