Grievance Redressal Committee / Cell

Introduction

In accordance with the guidelines of the University Grants Commission and the quality standards promoted by National Assessment and Accreditation Council, St. Ann's College for Women has constituted a Grievance Redressal Committee / Cell to ensure a fair, transparent, and student-friendly mechanism for addressing grievances of students and staff.

The Committee is committed to promoting a safe, respectful, inclusive, and harmonious academic environment by resolving grievances promptly and impartially.

Objectives of the Grievance Redressal Committee

The Grievance Redressal Committee aims to:

- Create awareness among students and staff regarding grievance redressal procedures.
- Prevent harassment, discrimination, and unfair practices within the institution.
- Provide a supportive platform for students and staff to express grievances freely and safely.
- Receive and register complaints in a confidential manner.
- Examine and investigate grievances fairly, transparently, and impartially.
- Take appropriate remedial measures for prompt resolution of issues.
- Counsel students and staff to resolve issues amicably wherever possible.
- Maintain proper records and reports of grievances received and actions taken.
- Promote discipline, mutual respect, and ethical practices on the campus.

Functions of the Committee

The Committee shall:

- Address academic, administrative, personal, and campus-related grievances.
- Ensure that complaints are handled with sensitivity and confidentiality.
- Recommend suitable corrective and preventive measures to the institution.
- Encourage a healthy and grievance-free campus environment.
- Submit periodic reports to the college administration and IQAC for quality improvement.

Grievance Redressal Procedure

1. Students or staff may submit grievances in writing to the Committee.
2. Complaints may also be submitted through the designated grievance mechanism provided by the institution.
3. The Committee shall review the complaint and conduct necessary enquiry.
4. Both parties involved shall be given an opportunity to present their views.
5. The Committee shall recommend suitable action for redressal within a reasonable time.
6. Confidentiality and fairness shall be maintained throughout the process.
