ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE ANNUAL ACTIVITY REPORT Academic Year 2024–2025

Introduction

The Anti-Ragging Committee of St. Ann's College for Women, Gorantla, Guntur, functions in accordance with the guidelines of the University Grants Commission (UGC) and the directives of the Government of India to ensure a safe, secure, and ragging-free campus environment. The Committee is committed to preventing ragging through awareness programmes, sensitization initiatives, student engagement activities, and continuous monitoring.

During the academic year 2024–2025, the Committee organized several awareness programmes and competitions to educate students about the harmful effects of ragging and to reinforce the institution's zero-tolerance policy towards ragging.

Objectives

1. To prevent ragging in all forms within the campus.
2. To create awareness about anti-ragging laws and UGC regulations.
3. To promote mutual respect, discipline, and healthy student relationships.
4. To provide a safe and supportive learning environment for all students.
5. To encourage students to actively participate in creating a ragging-free campus culture.

Activities Conducted During the Academic Year 2024–2025

1. Anti-Ragging Day Observation and Committee Meeting

Date: 12 August 2024

In compliance with the directives of the University Grants Commission (UGC) and the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Government of India, the Anti-Ragging Committee observed Anti-Ragging Day on 12 August 2024.

Prior to the observance, a meeting of the Anti-Ragging Committee was convened by Principal Rev. Sr. Sandhya Thumma in the Principal's Chamber at 11:30 a.m. The meeting focused on formulating the action plan for Anti-Ragging Week (12–18 August 2024) and emphasized the active involvement of faculty members in organizing awareness programmes and student-centered activities.

2. Anti-Ragging Awareness Rally

Date: 12 August 2024

To mark Anti-Ragging Day, an awareness rally was organized from the college campus to Gorantla Centre. Students, including NCC and NSS volunteers, actively participated by carrying placards and raising anti-ragging slogans.

The rally effectively spread awareness among students and the local community regarding the harmful consequences of ragging and promoted the message of maintaining a safe and welcoming educational environment.

3. Anti-Ragging Week Activities

Date: 14 August 2024

As part of Anti-Ragging Week celebrations, the Committee organized a series of awareness-based competitions and educational activities.

Essay Writing Competition

Students participated enthusiastically in an Essay Writing Competition on the topic:

"Ragging: Types, Effects, and Prevention."

The activity encouraged students to critically examine the causes and consequences of ragging and suggest preventive measures for fostering a positive campus atmosphere.

Poster Making Competition

A Poster Making Competition on the theme:

"Say No to Ragging"

was conducted to promote creative expression and awareness. Students designed impactful posters conveying messages of respect, unity, and campus harmony.

Short Film Screening

A short film on ragging and its consequences was screened for students. The film highlighted the emotional, psychological, social, and legal implications of ragging and encouraged students to actively support anti-ragging initiatives.

4. Anti-Ragging Week Awareness Programme

Date: 17 August 2024

An Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme was organized for second and final-year students in the college auditorium from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

The programme featured SI Mr. Yedukondalu, Sub-Inspector of Police, Nallapadu Police Station, Guntur, as the Resource Person. He sensitized students about:

- The legal consequences of ragging.
- Anti-ragging laws and regulations.
- Punishments associated with ragging-related offences.
- The importance of respecting fellow students and maintaining campus discipline.

Principal Rev. Sr. Sandhya Thumma addressed the gathering and reiterated the institution's strict prohibition of ragging. She encouraged students to contribute towards creating a supportive and inclusive educational environment.

Mrs. R. Sharon Rose, IQAC Coordinator, emphasized that ragging is a punishable offence and assured students of the college's commitment to ensuring safety, dignity, and well-being for all learners.

The programme was attended by Mrs. J. Prameela Rani, Convener of the Anti-Ragging Committee, along with committee members, faculty, and students. The session commenced with a welcome address by Mrs. P. Sandhya, Head, Department of English, and concluded with a vote of thanks by Miss B. Sruthi of III M.Sc.

5. Continuous Awareness and Monitoring

Period: Throughout the Academic Year

The Anti-Ragging Committee continuously monitored campus activities and maintained regular interaction with students. Awareness messages, committee information, and anti-ragging guidelines were displayed on notice boards and communicated through institutional platforms to ensure sustained vigilance and awareness.

Outcomes

- Increased student awareness regarding anti-ragging regulations and legal consequences.
- Strengthened understanding of the psychological, social, and emotional impact of ragging.
- Enhanced student participation in awareness and preventive initiatives.
- Fostered a culture of mutual respect, inclusiveness, and responsible behaviour.
- Reinforced the institution's commitment to maintaining a ragging-free campus.
- Improved student confidence in reporting grievances and seeking support when required.

Ragging Complaint Status

During the Academic Year 2024–2025, no incidents or complaints of ragging were reported or registered in the institution.

Conclusion

The Anti-Ragging Committee actively implemented awareness programmes and preventive measures throughout the academic year 2024–2025 to uphold a safe and student-friendly learning environment. Through rallies, competitions, awareness sessions, and continuous monitoring, the Committee successfully promoted the values of respect, dignity, discipline, and inclusiveness among students. The Committee remains committed to sustaining a ragging-free campus and ensuring the holistic well-being of all students.
