

ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE

ANNUAL ACTIVITY REPORT

Academic Year 2025–2026

Introduction

The Anti-Ragging Committee of St. Ann's College for Women, Gorantla, Guntur, is committed to ensuring a safe, secure, and ragging-free campus environment. The Committee functions in accordance with the guidelines of the University Grants Commission (UGC) and strives to create awareness among students regarding the harmful effects of ragging while promoting values of mutual respect, discipline, and responsible behavior.

During the academic year 2025–2026, the Committee organized various awareness programmes, competitions, and campaigns to educate students about anti-ragging regulations and to reinforce the institution's zero-tolerance policy towards ragging.

Objectives

1. To create awareness among students about the adverse effects of ragging.
2. To promote a safe, friendly, and inclusive campus environment.
3. To educate students regarding anti-ragging laws and regulations.
4. To encourage mutual respect, dignity, and positive interpersonal relationships.
5. To ensure strict compliance with UGC Anti-Ragging Guidelines.

Activities Conducted During the Academic Year 2025–2026

1. Inauguration of Anti-Ragging Week and Awareness Campaign

Date: 12 August 2025

The Anti-Ragging Committee officially inaugurated Anti-Ragging Week from 12th to 18th August 2025 during the college assembly held at St. Ann's Block. Rev. Sr. Sandhya Thumma, Principal, addressed the students on the harmful consequences of ragging and emphasized the importance of maintaining a respectful and supportive campus culture.

As part of the awareness campaign, all students collectively took the Anti-Ragging Pledge affirming their commitment to maintaining a ragging-free campus. Students also presented the "Say No to Ragging" song, and an awareness poster was displayed on the stage to reinforce the institution's commitment towards eliminating ragging.

2. Debate Competition on "Impact of Ragging"

Date: 12 August 2025

A Debate Competition on the theme "Impact of Ragging" was organized at St. Ann's Block. Approximately ten undergraduate students actively participated and expressed their views on the psychological, emotional, and social consequences of ragging.

The competition encouraged critical thinking and awareness regarding the importance of creating a safe and welcoming environment for all students. The programme was monitored by Mrs. J. Prameela Rani, Convener of the Anti-Ragging Committee.

3. Poster Making and Logo Presentation Competition

Date: 13 August 2025

As part of Anti-Ragging Week celebrations, a Poster Making and Logo Presentation Competition was organized to encourage students to creatively express anti-ragging messages.

Students designed impactful posters and logos emphasizing the themes of respect, unity, dignity, and campus safety. The competition served as an effective platform for spreading awareness about the institution's zero-tolerance policy towards ragging and promoting positive student interactions.

4. Essay Writing Competition on "Impact of Ragging"

Date: 18 August 2025

An Essay Writing Competition was conducted on the topic "Impact of Ragging". Students enthusiastically participated and presented thoughtful perspectives on the detrimental effects of ragging and the importance of maintaining a respectful academic environment.

The activity provided students with an opportunity to reflect on ethical values, empathy, and the responsibilities of students in preventing ragging.

5. Display of Anti-Ragging Awareness Materials

Period: Throughout the Academic Year

Anti-ragging posters, awareness messages, helpline numbers, committee details, and UGC Anti-Ragging regulations were displayed prominently on campus notice boards and institutional communication platforms. These initiatives ensured continuous awareness among students regarding anti-ragging measures and reporting mechanisms.

6. Committee Meetings and Monitoring Activities

Period: Academic Year 2025–2026

The Anti-Ragging Committee conducted periodic meetings to review anti-ragging measures, monitor campus discipline, and discuss preventive strategies. Faculty members continuously interacted with students to ensure a friendly and supportive academic atmosphere.

Outcomes

- Increased awareness among students regarding anti-ragging laws and regulations.
- Enhanced understanding of the emotional, psychological, and social consequences of ragging.
- Strengthened student commitment towards maintaining a respectful and inclusive campus culture.
- Encouraged active student participation in awareness-building activities.
- Reinforced the institution's zero-tolerance policy towards ragging.
- Promoted a safe, secure, and student-friendly learning environment.

Ragging Complaint Status

During the Academic Year 2025–2026, no incidents or complaints of ragging were reported or registered in the institution.

Conclusion

The Anti-Ragging Committee successfully organized various awareness programmes and student-centered activities during the academic year 2025–2026. These initiatives significantly contributed to fostering a culture of mutual respect, discipline, and inclusiveness among students. The Committee remains committed to sustaining a ragging-free campus and ensuring the well-being and safety of all students.

Convener

Anti-Ragging Committee

Principal

St. Ann's College for Women, Gorantla, Guntur