INTRODUCTION : Anti-Ragging initiatives aim to create a safe, respectful, and inclusive environment for every student. Ragging can cause emotional distress, fear, humiliation, and may negatively affect the academic and personal well-being of students. The college undertakes various awareness activities to educate students about the harmful effects and legal consequences of ragging. Through awareness programs, debates, essay writing, poster and slogan displays, and rallies, students are encouraged to reject ragging and promote friendship, dignity, kindness, and mutual respect. These efforts strengthen the commitment of the entire college community towards maintaining a ragging-free campus.

The objective of the week: Anti-Ragging Week is observed every year from 12th August to 18th August as per the guidelines and notification of the University Grants Commission (UGC). The week is organized to create awareness among students about the harmful effects and legal consequences of ragging and to promote a safe and respectful campus environment. Various activities such as debates, essay writing, poster and slogan displays, awareness rallies, and sensitization programmes are conducted with the active participation of UG and PG students. These initiatives encourage students to uphold dignity, mutual respect, friendship, and responsible behaviour, thereby strengthening the commitment to building a safe, inclusive, and ragging-free campus.

Objectives of the Anti-Ragging Committee :

- ❖ To promote a safe and conducive learning environment free from ragging and any form of harassment or intimidation among students.
- ❖ To create awareness among students, staff, and parents about the ill-effects of ragging and the strict legal provisions against it.
- ❖ To prevent ragging by implementing effective measures, monitoring campus activities, and ensuring strict disciplinary actions against offenders.
- ❖ To provide a mechanism for students and staff to report incidents of ragging confidentially and without fear of retaliation.
- ❖ To organize orientation programs, seminars, and workshops to sensitize students and staff on the importance of discipline, respect, and harmonious coexistence.
- ❖ To ensure prompt and impartial investigation of any reported ragging incidents and take appropriate corrective measures.
- ❖ To collaborate with law enforcement agencies and other relevant bodies to uphold the anti-ragging policies and legal provisions.
- ❖ To foster an inclusive and respectful campus culture that discourages any form of discrimination, harassment, or ragging behavior.
- ❖ To regularly review and update the college's anti-ragging policies and procedures to ensure their effectiveness.
- ❖ To involve parents, teachers, and student representatives actively in creating awareness and maintaining a ragging-free environment.

Anti- Ragging Committee – Activities:

- The Anti Ragging committee holds a workshop every year on the Anti-Ragging

Sr. G. Margaret Priyanka, Office Administrator, addressed the gathering and highlighted the importance of maintaining a safe, respectful, and ragging-free campus. She encouraged students to treat one another with dignity, kindness, and friendship and emphasized that ragging in any form should never be tolerated. She urged the students to be responsible, support one another, and promptly report any incidents of ragging. She concluded by encouraging everyone to work together to build a safe and harmonious campus for all.

Mrs. R. Sharon Rose, Vice Principal, addressed the gathering as part of the Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme. She stressed that every student has the right to learn and grow in an environment free from fear and harassment. She urged the students to uphold the values of respect, discipline, dignity, and mutual support. She also highlighted the importance of speaking up against ragging and standing together to protect one another. Her motivating words encouraged the students to take collective responsibility for building a safe, friendly, and ragging-free campus.

Mr. Suresh, Sub-Inspector of Police, Nallapadu Police Station, conducted an awareness session on anti-ragging and student safety. He explained the seriousness of ragging and its impact on students and emphasized that ragging is a punishable offence. He encouraged students to maintain discipline, respect one another, and immediately report any incident of ragging to the college authorities or the police. He also highlighted the importance of creating a friendly and supportive environment for all students. Students were advised to avoid any form of physical or mental harassment. He urged them to be courageous in speaking up and seeking help whenever necessary.

The session concluded with a strong call to “Say No to Ragging and Yes to Respect.” . His informative and motivating session created greater awareness among the students and strengthened the message of maintaining a safe and ragging-free campus.

The Anti-Ragging Committee members felicitated Mr. Suresh, SI, Nallapadu Police Station, in recognition of his valuable presence and informative awareness session during the Anti-Ragging Awareness and Student Safety Programme. He was honoured with a memento and shawl as a token of appreciation and gratitude for his guidance and support in promoting a safe and ragging-free campus. The occasion also strengthened the collaboration between the college and the police department in ensuring student safety and preventing ragging.

DAY – 2: AWARENESS RALLY

As part of Anti-Ragging Week 2026, an Awareness Rally was organized on the college campus to spread awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and promote a safe and respectful environment. Students actively participated in the rally carrying placards and raising slogans such as “Say No to Ragging” and “Ragging is a Crime.” The rally emphasized the values of respect, friendship, safety, dignity, and harmony. Students were encouraged to stand united against ragging and to report any incidents without fear. The rally successfully created awareness and reinforced the college’s commitment to building a ragging-free campus.

The Anti-Ragging Awareness Rally concluded with students reaffirming their commitment to say no to ragging and promote respect, safety, and dignity. The participants enthusiastically raised anti-ragging slogans and conveyed the message that ragging has no place in an educational institution. The rally successfully created awareness among the students and strengthened the collective responsibility to maintain a safe, friendly, and ragging-free campus. The rally served as a powerful reminder of the importance of mutual respect, kindness, and responsible behaviour among students.

DAY – 3 LEGAL AWARENESS SESSION

As part of the Anti-Ragging Week celebrations, a Legal Awareness and Interactive Session was organized on 14th August 2026 at 10:00 a.m. at St. Ann's College for Women, Gorantla, Guntur. The programme was organized by the Anti-Ragging Committee in collaboration with IQAC.

The Legal Awareness and Interactive Session was anchored by Mrs. D. Swarna Charani Rai, Head of the Department of Computers. She extended a warm welcome to the dignitaries, resource person, faculty members, and students gathered for the programme. She briefly highlighted the significance of conducting legal awareness programmes as part of Anti-Ragging Week.

She introduced the resource person and gave a brief overview of his professional background and expertise. She guided the programme through its various proceedings in a systematic and engaging manner. She encouraged the students to listen attentively and actively participate in the interactive session.

Sr. G. Margaret Priyanka, Office Administrator, addressed the gathering during the Legal Awareness and Interactive Session. She warmly welcomed the resource person, dignitaries, faculty members, and students and highlighted the importance of creating awareness about the legal and social consequences of ragging.

In her address, she emphasized the need for students to respect one another and uphold the values of dignity, discipline, responsibility, and mutual understanding. She encouraged the students to maintain a friendly and supportive campus atmosphere and to speak up against any form of ragging or harassment.

Mrs. R. Sharon Rose, IQAC Coordinator and Vice Principal, addressed the gathering during the Legal Awareness and Interactive Session. In her address, she emphasized the importance of creating awareness among students about the legal implications and serious consequences of ragging. She also stressed the collective responsibility of students and staff in preventing ragging and promoting a culture of dignity, mutual respect, and responsibility. She appreciated the efforts of the Anti-Ragging Committee and IQAC in organizing the programme and encouraged the students to make the best use of the session.

Sri. Mathangi Srikanth, B.Sc., M.P.M., B.L., Ex. Additional Public Prosecutor & Advocate, A.P. High Court, addressed the gathering as the resource person for the Legal Awareness and Interactive Session. He explained the legal aspects of ragging and highlighted the serious consequences faced by those involved in ragging.

He created awareness among the students about their legal rights and responsibilities and emphasized that ragging is not merely a form of fun or interaction but a punishable offence. He explained the importance of maintaining discipline, dignity, mutual respect, and a sense of responsibility within the campus.

The resource person also interacted with the students and encouraged them to speak up and report any incident of ragging without fear. He clarified their doubts and provided valuable guidance on the legal measures and preventive mechanisms available to students.

The audience showed great enthusiasm throughout the session and actively responded to the discussions on ragging, its legal consequences, and preventive measures. Students raised questions and clarified their doubts during the interactive session, making the programme more engaging and meaningful.

The Resource Person, Sri. Mathangi Srikanth, was felicitated by the college management and Anti-Ragging Committee members as a mark of appreciation for his valuable contribution to the Legal Awareness and Interactive Session. He was presented with a memento and bouquet in recognition of his informative and enlightening interaction with the students.

The college also felicitated its Alumna, Mrs. K. Sowjanya Bindu, Junior Lawyer, who was associated with the programme. Her presence added special significance to the occasion and reflected the institution's continued bond with its alumni.

The felicitation ceremony expressed the college's gratitude and appreciation for their valuable presence, support, and contribution towards promoting legal awareness, discipline, dignity, and a ragging-free campus environment.

The programme concluded with a group photograph involving the resource person, college representatives, faculty members, and students. The photograph captured the memorable moments of the Legal Awareness and Interactive Session and reflected the enthusiastic participation of the students.

Day – 4 - SELFIE STAND CAMPAIGN

As part of the Anti-Ragging Week activities, a Selfie Stand Campaign was organized at St. Ann's College for Women to create awareness among students about the importance of maintaining a safe, respectful, and ragging-free campus.

A specially designed selfie stand carrying anti-ragging messages and slogans was placed at a prominent location on the campus. Students and staff enthusiastically participated in the campaign by taking photographs with the selfie stand and displaying messages such as “Say No to Ragging” and “Together, Let's Build a Ragging-Free Campus.”

The campaign provided an attractive and creative way to spread the anti-ragging message among the student community. It encouraged students to publicly express their commitment to opposing ragging and promoting respect, dignity, safety, friendship, and responsibility.

The enthusiastic participation of the students made the campaign lively and impactful, strengthening the collective commitment of the college community towards creating a safe, friendly, and ragging-free campus environment.

DAY – 6 ESSAY WRITING

As part of Anti-Ragging Week, an Essay Writing Competition was organized on 17th August 2026 (Day 6) on the theme “Impact of Ragging.” The programme aimed to provide students with an opportunity to express their thoughts and create awareness about the harmful effects of ragging.

Total of 45 students from various programmes of UG actively participated in the Essay Writing Competition organized as part of Anti-Ragging Week. The students enthusiastically expressed their thoughts and perspectives on the theme “Impact of Ragging.”

The participants demonstrated keen interest and sincerity while writing their essays. Through their writings, they reflected on the harmful effects of ragging and emphasized the importance of respect, dignity, kindness, responsibility, and empathy among students.

The active participation of students from different UG programmes made the competition meaningful and helped strengthen awareness about the need to prevent ragging and promote a safe, respectful, and ragging-free campus environment.

DAY – 7 -- DEBATE AND POSTER PRESENTATION

As part of Anti-Ragging Week, a Debate Competition was organized on 18th August 2026 (Day 7) on the topic “Awareness or Punishment – Which is more effective in preventing Ragging?”

The debate provided students with an opportunity to express their views, develop their communication skills, and critically examine different approaches to preventing ragging. Participants presented arguments both in favour of creating greater awareness and in support of strict punishment as a deterrent.

Mrs. J. Prameela Rani, Convener, briefed the students on the guidelines and procedures to be followed for the debate competition. She explained the theme “Awareness or Punishment – Which is More Effective in Preventing Ragging?” and encouraged the participants to present their views confidently and respectfully.

She instructed the students to:

Understand the topic clearly and present relevant arguments.
Support their opinions with suitable examples and logical reasoning.

Respect opposing views and maintain proper debate etiquette.
Manage their allotted time effectively and communicate their ideas clearly.

The Postgraduate (PG) students actively participated in the debate competition, presenting their views confidently on the topic of “Awareness or Punishment “which is more effective in preventing Ragging? . The activity provided an opportunity for students to develop critical thinking, analytical skills, effective communication, and public-speaking abilities. The participants engaged in a healthy exchange of ideas and demonstrated confidence, clarity of thought, and logical reasoning. Debate activities are widely recognized as effective platforms for strengthening students’ communication and critical-thinking skills.

As part of the Anti-Ragging Week celebrations, UG students actively participated in a debate on the theme of “Awareness or Punishment “which is more effective in preventing Ragging? The students expressed their views confidently and highlighted the importance of maintaining a safe, respectful, and ragging-free campus. The debate encouraged critical thinking, effective communication, and awareness among students about preventing ragging and promoting a positive campus environment.

POSTER MAKING & SLOGANS PRESENTATION COMPETITION

As part of Anti-Ragging Week, Day 7 featured a Poster and Slogans Presentation on the theme of creating a ragging-free campus. Students showcased creative posters and meaningful slogans promoting respect, safety, friendship, kindness, and mutual trust. The activity effectively spread awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and encouraged students to build a safe and supportive campus environment.

Students actively participated in an Anti-Ragging Poster-Making Activity as part of Anti-Ragging Week. They creatively designed posters carrying powerful messages such as "Say No to Ragging," "Don't Be a Mute Witness to Ragging," and "Ragging is a Criminal Offence." The posters highlighted the importance of kindness, friendship, unity, and creating a safe and ragging-free campus. The activity encouraged students to spread awareness and take a strong stand against ragging.

Students enthusiastically participated in the Anti-Ragging Slogans-Making Activity by creating colorful and meaningful Slogans to spread awareness against ragging. The Slogans conveyed strong messages such as "Say No to Ragging," "Ragging is a Crime," "Ragging is Not Fun," and "Respect Every Student."

Through their creative artwork and slogans, students highlighted the harmful effects of ragging and encouraged their peers to promote kindness, friendship, respect, and unity. The activity helped reinforce the message of maintaining a safe, supportive, and ragging-free campus.

UG and PG students actively participated in the Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme by displaying creatively prepared slogans and posters. The students showcased meaningful messages highlighting the harmful effects of ragging and the importance of maintaining a safe and friendly campus environment. Their enthusiastic participation reflected their commitment to promoting respect, unity, friendship, and a ragging-free campus. The activity effectively spread awareness and encouraged students to collectively stand against ragging.

The display created a strong visual impact and encouraged students to understand their responsibility in preventing ragging. It also promoted a sense of solidarity among UG and PG students in building a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus community.

Outcomes of Anti-Ragging Week

- Increased awareness among students about the harmful effects and legal consequences of ragging.
- Students developed a stronger sense of responsibility towards maintaining a ragging-free campus.
- Promoted friendship, mutual respect, kindness, and healthy interaction among UG and PG students.
- Encouraged students to speak up against ragging and report any incidents without fear.
- Students actively participated in debates, essay writing, poster and slogan displays, awareness rallies, and other activities.
- Strengthened the commitment of students and staff to create a safe, inclusive, and supportive learning environment.
- The week-long activities reinforced the message that ragging is unacceptable and every student deserves dignity and respect.

Conclusion

The Anti-Ragging Week concluded successfully with active participation from UG and PG students and staff. The various awareness activities helped students understand the harmful effects and consequences of ragging and encouraged them to promote friendship, respect, and mutual support. The programme strengthened the collective commitment of the college community to maintain a safe, inclusive, and ragging-free campus. It concluded with a strong message that every student deserves dignity, security, and a positive learning environment.
