GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL CELL ANNUAL ACTIVITY REPORT Academic Year 2025–2026

Introduction

The Grievance Redressal Cell of St. Ann's College for Women, Gorantla, Guntur, plays a pivotal role in ensuring a fair, transparent, and student-friendly environment within the institution. The Cell serves as an effective platform for addressing the concerns and grievances of students and stakeholders, thereby promoting harmony, trust, and accountability. During the academic year 2025–2026, the Cell actively worked towards safeguarding student interests, resolving grievances promptly, and fostering a culture of mutual respect and institutional responsiveness.

Objectives

- To provide a transparent, accessible, and effective grievance redressal mechanism.
- To address student grievances promptly and impartially.
- To promote a safe, inclusive, and supportive campus environment.
- To uphold the principles of natural justice, equality, and confidentiality.
- To encourage students to express their concerns without fear of discrimination or retaliation.
- To strengthen institutional governance through participative decision-making and feedback.

Activities Conducted During the Academic Year 2025–2026

1. Reconstitution of the Grievance Redressal Cell

At the commencement of the academic year, the Grievance Redressal Cell was reconstituted as per institutional guidelines. Roles and responsibilities of committee members were clearly defined to ensure effective functioning and timely grievance resolution.

2. Orientation and Awareness Programmes

Awareness programmes were conducted for newly admitted students to familiarize them with the grievance redressal mechanism, complaint submission procedures, and institutional support systems. Information regarding grievance channels was disseminated through orientation programmes, student handbooks, notices, and the college website.

3. Grievance Registration and Resolution

The Cell received and addressed grievances related to:

- Academic matters and classroom concerns
- Examination and evaluation issues

- Library and laboratory facilities
- Infrastructure and campus amenities
- Student welfare and support services
- Interpersonal concerns and behavioural issues
- Administrative services

All grievances were reviewed objectively, and appropriate remedial measures were taken in consultation with the concerned departments and authorities.

4. Student Interaction and Open Forum Meetings

Regular interaction meetings and open forums were organized to provide students with opportunities to share their concerns, suggestions, and feedback. These meetings promoted constructive dialogue and helped identify areas requiring institutional improvement.

5. Collaboration with Student Support Committees

The Grievance Redressal Cell worked in coordination with various institutional bodies, including:

- IQAC
- Mentor–Mentee Committee
- Students Counselling Cell
- Anti-Ragging Committee
- Women Empowerment Cell
- Discipline Committee
- Equal Opportunity Cell

This collaborative approach ensured holistic support and effective resolution of student concerns.

6. Monitoring and Follow-Up Mechanism

The Cell maintained records of grievances received and monitored the implementation of corrective measures. Follow-up reviews were conducted to ensure that grievances were resolved satisfactorily and within a reasonable timeframe.

7. Feedback-Based Quality Enhancement

Student feedback and suggestions received through various channels were analyzed and communicated to the concerned authorities. Several improvements in student support services, academic processes, and campus facilities were initiated based on constructive feedback.

8. Promotion of a Student-Centric Campus Environment

The Cell continuously promoted awareness regarding students' rights, responsibilities, ethical behaviour, and institutional values. Efforts were made to strengthen trust between students and the administration through transparency and responsiveness.

Outcomes

- Enhanced awareness among students regarding grievance redressal procedures and support mechanisms.
- Timely and effective resolution of grievances.
- Improved communication between students and institutional authorities.

- Increased confidence among students in institutional grievance handling processes.
- Strengthened participative governance and student engagement.
- Improved student satisfaction with campus services and facilities.
- Promotion of a safe, inclusive, and student-friendly academic environment.

Best Practices

- Confidential and impartial handling of grievances.
- Transparent grievance registration and resolution process.
- Regular student interaction and feedback collection.
- Systematic monitoring and follow-up of grievances.
- Collaboration with student support and welfare committees.
- Continuous quality improvement based on stakeholder feedback.

Conclusion

The Grievance Redressal Cell successfully fulfilled its responsibilities during the academic year 2025–2026 by ensuring a responsive, transparent, and effective grievance management system. Through its proactive initiatives and commitment to student welfare, the Cell contributed significantly to maintaining a positive academic environment and strengthening institutional accountability. The College remains committed to upholding the principles of fairness, justice, inclusiveness, and student-centric governance.

Future Plans

- Strengthen digital grievance submission and tracking mechanisms.
- Conduct more awareness programmes on students' rights and responsibilities.
- Enhance stakeholder participation in institutional feedback systems.
- Promote a culture of proactive grievance prevention and conflict resolution.
