WOMEN EMPOWERMENT CELL ANNUAL ACTIVITY REPORT Academic Year 2024–2025

Introduction

The Women Empowerment Cell of St. Ann's College for Women, Gorantla, Guntur, is committed to fostering gender equality, women's rights, leadership development, self-confidence, and social awareness among students. The Cell strives to create an environment where young women are empowered through education, skill development, awareness programmes, and community engagement. During the academic year 2024–2025, the Women Empowerment Cell organized various activities focusing on women's empowerment, leadership, rights, safety, and holistic development.

Objectives of the Cell

- To promote gender equality and women's empowerment.
- To create awareness about women's rights and opportunities.
- To encourage leadership qualities and decision-making skills among students.
- To inspire young women to become socially responsible and self-reliant citizens.
- To provide a platform for students to express their aspirations, talents, and vision for the future.

Activities Conducted During the Academic Year 2024–2025

1. Awareness Session on “Girls Vision for the Future Program”

Date: 20 November 2024

Organized by: Women Empowerment Cell with the support of Management and IQAC

Chairperson: Rev. Sr. Sandhya Thumma, Principal

Objectives

- To inspire girls to envision a brighter future.
- To promote awareness regarding equal rights and opportunities for women.
- To encourage educational advancement, leadership, and personal development.
- To motivate students to become agents of social change.

Report

The Women Empowerment Cell organized an Awareness Session on “Girls Vision for the Future Program” on 20 November 2024 with the support of the Management and IQAC. The programme emphasized the transformative power of girls in shaping a better society and highlighted the importance of empowering young women through education, leadership, and skill development.

The session focused on creating awareness about the need to provide equal opportunities, quality education, health care, and a safe environment for girls. Students were encouraged to dream big, develop confidence, and contribute positively to society.

As part of the programme, students of I B.Sc. (Computer Science & Physical Science) presented creative posters depicting various aspects of girls' aspirations, leadership, education, innovation, and social empowerment. The poster exhibition effectively conveyed messages on gender equality, women's rights, and the importance of investing in girls' futures.

The programme successfully motivated students to become confident, responsible, and empowered individuals capable of contributing to nation-building.

Outcomes

- Enhanced awareness regarding women's rights and opportunities.
- Encouraged students to develop leadership aspirations.
- Promoted creative expression through poster presentations.
- Strengthened students' understanding of gender equality and social responsibility.

Report

The Women Empowerment Cell celebrated International Women's Day 2025 on 8 March 2025 under the global campaign theme "Accelerate Action." The programme aimed to emphasize the urgency of advancing gender equality and empowering women in all spheres of life.

The celebration commenced with an awareness rally from the college campus to Gorantla. Students carried placards displaying powerful messages such as "Stop Violence Against Women," "Stop Female Foeticide," "Treat Children Well," and "Be Bold." The rally witnessed active participation from students, faculty members, IQAC representatives, and Women Empowerment Cell members, spreading awareness among the public about women's rights and social issues.

The formal programme was held at Gnanam Auditorium at 10:30 a.m. Rev. Sr. Sandhya Thumma, Principal, addressed the gathering and highlighted the significance of education in empowering women. She encouraged students to pursue professional excellence, continuous learning, and mutual support to achieve success in various fields.

The Chief Guest, Rev. Sr. Vyakula Mary, delivered an inspiring address emphasizing the importance of skill development, leadership qualities, and self-confidence among women. She spoke about the need to eliminate discrimination, violence, and inequality while encouraging students to actively contribute to building an inclusive society.

The celebration also featured vibrant cultural performances by UG and PG students. The dance performances effectively reflected the theme of women's empowerment and received enthusiastic appreciation from the audience.

The programme concluded with the felicitation of the Chief Guest and a formal vote of thanks.

Outcomes

- Increased awareness regarding women's rights and gender equality.
- Encouraged students to actively participate in social advocacy.
- Promoted leadership, confidence, and professional aspirations among women students.
- Strengthened understanding of the role of women in nation-building and social transformation.
