

ST. ANN'S COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

Run by The Society of St Anne

Affiliated to Acharya Nagarjuna University, Approved by AICTE

Recognised under Section 2(f) of the UGC Act 1956, New Delhi.

Accredited by NAAC with 'A' Grade in the first cycle

Amaravathi Road, Gorantla, Guntur-34, Andhra Pradesh, India.

Estd:1997

Email: st_anns_coll@yahoo.co.in

Website: www.stannscollegeforwomen.org

Anti-Ragging Committee Guidelines & Procedures

1. Introduction

The Anti-Ragging Committee of St. Ann's College for Women, Gorantla, Guntur is constituted to prevent and prohibit ragging in all forms within the campus and to ensure a safe, secure, disciplined, and student-friendly environment. The committee functions in accordance with the regulations and guidelines issued by the University Grants Commission, National Assessment and Accreditation Council, Government authorities, and affiliating university regulations.

The committee is committed to maintaining a ragging-free campus by creating awareness, monitoring student behavior, promoting harmony, and taking strict action against ragging activities.

2. Objectives

The Anti-Ragging Committee aims to:

1. Ensure a ragging-free campus environment.
2. Implement anti-ragging rules and regulations as per UGC and Government guidelines.
3. Create awareness among students regarding the ill-effects and legal consequences of ragging.
4. Promote discipline, harmony, mutual respect, and healthy interaction among students.
5. Monitor student behavior in classrooms, campus premises, and hostels (if applicable).
6. Receive and address complaints related to ragging promptly and confidentially.
7. Take strict disciplinary action against individuals involved in ragging activities.
8. Conduct regular meetings, inspections, and awareness activities to prevent ragging.
9. Display anti-ragging notices, posters, and helpline information prominently on campus.

10. Counsel students to maintain discipline, dignity, and positive relationships.

3. Constitution of the Committee

The Anti-Ragging Committee shall consist of:

- Principal – Chairperson
- Anti-Ragging Committee Coordinator – Convener
- IQAC Coordinator
- Senior Faculty Members
- NSS Coordinator
- Student Representatives
- Administrative Staff
- Parent Representative (if applicable)
- Non-Teaching Staff Representative (if required)

4. Roles and Responsibilities

Chairperson

- Provide leadership and guidance for anti-ragging measures.
- Ensure implementation of anti-ragging regulations and institutional policies.
- Review committee functioning periodically.

Committee Coordinator

- Coordinate anti-ragging activities and awareness programs.
- Organize committee meetings and inspections.
- Maintain reports, complaints, and documentation.

IQAC Coordinator

- Integrate anti-ragging measures with institutional quality initiatives.
- Support documentation required for NAAC accreditation.

Faculty Members

- Monitor student behavior inside classrooms and campus.

- Encourage discipline, respect, and positive interaction among students.
- Report incidents or concerns related to ragging immediately.

NSS Coordinator

- Conduct awareness campaigns, rallies, and outreach activities.
- Promote social responsibility and student discipline.

Student Representatives

- Promote anti-ragging awareness among students.
- Encourage healthy student relationships and campus harmony.
- Report incidents responsibly to the committee.

Administrative Staff

- Assist in maintaining records, notices, and official correspondence.
- Support organization of awareness and preventive activities.

5. Guidelines & Procedures

5.1 Awareness Programs

The committee shall organize:

- Orientation Programs
- Awareness Seminars
- Workshops
- Guest Lectures
- Pledge Activities
- Poster Campaigns
- Anti-Ragging Awareness Drives

to educate students about the harmful effects and legal consequences of ragging.

5.2 Preventive Measures

- Display anti-ragging notices and helpline numbers prominently on campus.
- Monitor classrooms, corridors, common areas, and hostels (if applicable).

- Conduct surprise inspections whenever necessary.
- Obtain anti-ragging undertakings from students and parents as per UGC regulations.

5.3 Complaint Handling Procedure

- Complaints related to ragging may be submitted orally or in writing.
- Complaints shall be handled confidentially and promptly.
- The committee shall investigate complaints fairly and transparently.
- Appropriate recommendations shall be made to the college administration.

5.4 Counseling & Student Support

- Counsel students to promote harmony, discipline, and mutual respect.
- Provide emotional support and guidance to affected students.
- Encourage students to report incidents without fear.

5.5 Disciplinary Action

Strict action shall be taken against students involved in ragging activities as per institutional rules and UGC regulations, which may include:

- Warning or Suspension
- Cancellation of Admission
- Debarring from Examinations
- Rustication or Expulsion
- Filing complaints with law enforcement authorities if necessary

5.6 Responsibilities of the Anti-Ragging Committee

The committee shall:

- Ensure strict implementation of anti-ragging regulations.
- Maintain a safe and disciplined campus environment.
- Promote awareness regarding anti-ragging laws and policies.
- Monitor student behavior and campus activities regularly.

- Maintain records and reports of complaints, inquiries, and preventive measures.
- Coordinate with college authorities and external agencies whenever required.

6. Documentation

The committee shall maintain:

- Committee Meeting Minutes
- Complaint Registers
- Inquiry Reports
- Awareness Program Reports
- Attendance Records
- Photographs and Posters
- Anti-Ragging Undertakings
- Preventive Action Reports
- Documentation required for NAAC and statutory compliance

7. Role in NAAC & Institutional Development

The Anti-Ragging Committee contributes towards:

- Student Welfare and Safety
- Discipline and Ethical Environment
- Institutional Values and Social Responsibility
- Holistic Student Development
- Quality Enhancement Initiatives
- Safe and Inclusive Campus Culture

8. Monitoring & Review

- The committee functioning shall be reviewed periodically by the Principal and IQAC.
- Feedback from students, faculty, and stakeholders shall be considered for continuous improvement.

9. Expected Outcomes

- Maintenance of a ragging-free campus.
- Increased awareness regarding anti-ragging laws and consequences.
- Development of a safe, disciplined, and harmonious campus environment.
- Promotion of mutual respect and positive student relationships.
- Strengthened institutional commitment towards student welfare and safety.

10. Conclusion

The Anti-Ragging Committee of St. Ann's College for Women, Gorantla, Guntur is committed to maintaining a safe, secure, disciplined, and ragging-free campus through awareness, prevention, counseling, monitoring, and strict implementation of anti-ragging regulations in accordance with UGC, NAAC, and Government guidelines.