

Universal Human Values (UHV) Cell

Guidelines, Procedures & Activities

1. Introduction

The Universal Human Values (UHV) Cell of St. Ann's College for Women, Gorantla, Guntur is established to promote ethical values, social responsibility, moral behavior, emotional well-being, and holistic personality development among students and faculty.

The UHV Cell functions in alignment with AICTE, NAAC, and UGC initiatives on Value-Based Education to nurture responsible citizens with integrity, compassion, discipline, and respect for humanity. The cell aims to integrate universal human values into academic, co-curricular, and extension activities for creating a positive and ethical institutional culture.

2. Vision

To develop ethically responsible, compassionate, and socially committed individuals through value-based education and human-centered learning.

3. Mission

- To promote universal human values and ethical behavior among students and staff.
- To create awareness about social responsibility, empathy, honesty, and respect.
- To integrate value-based education into academic and co-curricular activities.
- To encourage holistic development and positive interpersonal relationships.

4. Objectives

The objectives of the Universal Human Values (UHV) Cell are to:

- Promote universal human values such as honesty, empathy, respect, responsibility, compassion, and integrity.
- Organize orientation programs, workshops, and awareness sessions on value-based education.

- Conduct sessions on ethics, moral values, emotional well-being, and holistic development.
- Arrange debates, discussions, awareness programs, and value-oriented activities.
- Integrate human values into teaching-learning and co-curricular activities.
- Promote social responsibility, ethical behavior, and peaceful coexistence.
- Encourage positive relationships, leadership, and responsible citizenship.
- Maintain records and reports of all UHV activities and programs.

5. Scope of Activities

The UHV Cell shall undertake activities related to:

- Value-based education
- Ethics and moral awareness
- Personality and character development
- Emotional and social well-being
- Leadership and responsibility
- Social harmony and citizenship awareness
- Community and service-learning activities

6. Constitution of the Cell

The Universal Human Values Cell shall consist of:

- Principal – Chairperson
- UHV Coordinator / Convener
- Faculty Representatives
- IQAC Representative
- Student Representatives
- Counselors / Resource Persons (if required)

The composition of the cell may be revised by the Principal based on institutional requirements.

7. Roles and Responsibilities

The UHV Cell shall:

- Promote universal human values and ethical practices within the institution.
- Organize orientation programs, seminars, workshops, and awareness activities.
- Encourage discussions on ethics, values, and social responsibility.
- Integrate value-based practices into academic and co-curricular activities.
- Conduct programs promoting empathy, discipline, and positive behavior.
- Encourage participation in community service and social awareness activities.
- Coordinate with departments for implementation of UHV initiatives.
- Maintain records and reports of activities conducted.

8. Procedures

Step 1: Planning of Activities

- Prepare annual plan for value-based education and awareness activities.

Step 2: Orientation and Awareness Programs

The cell shall organize:

- Orientation sessions on Universal Human Values
- Workshops on ethics and moral values
- Awareness programs on social responsibility
- Motivational and personality development sessions

Step 3: Conduct of Activities

The cell may conduct:

- Debates and discussions
- Value-based competitions
- Group activities
- Interactive sessions
- Community engagement programs

- Leadership and communication activities

Step 4: Integration with Academic Activities

- Human values and ethical practices shall be encouraged through:
 - Classroom discussions
 - Seminars
 - Extension activities
 - Co-curricular programs

Step 5: Monitoring and Evaluation

- Review effectiveness of programs and collect feedback from participants.

Step 6: Documentation

- Maintain reports, attendance, photographs, and supporting records of all activities.

9. Major Activities

The UHV Cell may organize:

- Universal Human Values Orientation Programs
- Ethics and Moral Education Workshops
- Personality Development Sessions
- Motivational Talks
- Debates and Group Discussions
- Social Responsibility Programs
- Community Outreach Activities
- Leadership and Emotional Wellness Programs

10. Promotion of Human Values

The UHV Cell shall promote:

- Honesty and Integrity
- Respect and Empathy
- Responsibility and Discipline

- Gender Sensitivity and Equality
- Peaceful Coexistence
- Social Commitment and Service
- Environmental Responsibility
- Ethical and Professional Conduct

11. Meetings

- The UHV Cell shall conduct periodic meetings for planning and review of activities.
- Minutes of meetings and Action Taken Reports shall be maintained properly.

12. Documentation and Records

The cell shall maintain:

- Committee Constitution
- Annual Activity Plans
- Attendance Registers
- Workshop and Seminar Reports
- Feedback Forms
- Photographs and Media Reports
- Student Participation Records
- Meeting Minutes and ATRs
- Annual Reports

13. AICTE, NAAC & UGC Compliance

The Universal Human Values Cell functions in alignment with:

- AICTE Universal Human Values Initiatives
- UGC Value-Based Education Framework
- NAAC Holistic and Student-Centric Education Practices
- Ethical and Social Responsibility Standards

The cell contributes to:

- Value-Based Education
- Holistic Development
- Ethical and Responsible Citizenship
- Emotional and Social Well-being
- Institutional Quality Enhancement

14. Expected Outcomes

The activities of the UHV Cell are expected to:

- Develop ethical values and responsible behavior among students.
- Promote empathy, respect, and positive relationships.
- Enhance emotional well-being and leadership qualities.
- Encourage social responsibility and community engagement.
- Strengthen value-based institutional culture.
- Promote holistic personality development.

15. Conclusion

St. Ann's College for Women, Gorantla, Guntur is committed to nurturing ethically responsible, compassionate, and socially conscious individuals through value-based education and holistic development initiatives. The Universal Human Values (UHV) Cell plays a vital role in promoting human values, ethics, emotional well-being, and responsible citizenship in alignment with AICTE, NAAC, and UGC quality standards for affiliated colleges.