

Estd:1997

Email: st_anns_coll@yahoo.co.in

ST. ANN'S COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

Run by The Society of St Anne

Affiliated to Acharya Nagarjuna University, Approved by AICTE

Recognised under Section 2(f) of the UGC Act 1956, New Delhi.

Accredited by NAAC with 'A' Grade in the first cycle

Amaravathi Road, Gorantla, Guntur-34, Andhra Pradesh, India.

Website: www.stannscollegeforwomen.org

Attendance Committee Guidelines & Procedures

1. Introduction

The Attendance Committee of St. Ann's College for Women is constituted to ensure regularity, punctuality, discipline, and academic participation among students. The committee functions in coordination with the Principal, Heads of Departments, Class In-Charges, Examination Cell, and parents to monitor and maintain student attendance effectively.

The committee works in accordance with the norms and regulations prescribed by the University Grants Commission, affiliating university, and institutional policies to promote academic excellence and student responsibility.

2. Objectives

The objectives of the Attendance Committee are:

- To ensure regular attendance of students in all academic activities.
- To monitor subject-wise and overall attendance of students.
- To create awareness regarding the importance of regular attendance.
- To identify students with shortage of attendance and take corrective measures.
- To communicate attendance status to students and parents periodically.
- To maintain transparency and accuracy in attendance records.
- To support academic discipline and institutional quality standards.
- To provide authentic attendance data for examinations and administrative purposes.
- To ensure compliance with university regulations and NAAC quality benchmarks.

3. Composition of the Committee

The Attendance Committee shall consist of:

- Principal – Chairperson

- Senior Faculty Member – Coordinator
- Heads of Departments
- Class In-Charges / Mentors
- Examination Cell Representative
- Administrative Staff (if required)

The Principal may nominate additional members whenever necessary.

4. Roles and Responsibilities

The Attendance Committee shall:

4.1 Attendance Monitoring

- Monitor daily attendance of students in coordination with class in-charges and faculty members.
- Ensure subject-wise attendance is maintained accurately and regularly.

4.2 Attendance Record Maintenance

- Maintain proper attendance registers, records, and digital data.
- Verify attendance entries periodically for accuracy and transparency.

4.3 Attendance Shortage Identification

- Identify students with low attendance percentages.
- Prepare shortage lists periodically and communicate them to concerned stakeholders.

4.4 Communication with Students and Parents

- Inform students regarding attendance deficiencies through notices, counseling, and mentoring.
- Communicate attendance status to parents through meetings, phone calls, letters, or digital communication.

4.5 Awareness and Counseling

- Conduct awareness programmes on the importance of regular attendance and academic discipline.
- Counsel irregular students and motivate them toward improvement.

4.6 Examination Eligibility

- Submit verified attendance records to the Examination Cell.
- Ensure only eligible students are permitted to appear for examinations as per university norms.

4.7 Coordination

- Coordinate with departments, mentors, and faculty members for effective implementation of attendance policies.
- Work closely with student support systems to address genuine attendance-related issues.

4.8 Reporting

- Prepare attendance analysis reports for institutional records, IQAC documentation, and NAAC requirements

5. Attendance Rules

- Students must maintain the minimum attendance percentage prescribed by the affiliating university.
- Attendance shall be calculated subject-wise and overall.
- Students absent for classes due to genuine reasons must submit valid supporting documents.
- Leave applications must be submitted through proper procedure.
- Repeated absenteeism without valid reason shall invite disciplinary action.
- Attendance is compulsory for:
 - Classroom teaching
 - Laboratory sessions
 - Seminars and workshops
 - Internal examinations
 - Guest lectures
 - Institutional activities assigned by departments

6. Procedures of the Attendance Committee

6.1 Daily Attendance Recording

- Faculty members shall record attendance for every class hour/day.
- Class In-Charges shall verify attendance records periodically.

6.2 Monthly Attendance Review

- Attendance shall be reviewed monthly.
- Subject-wise attendance lists shall be displayed on notice boards or digital platforms.

6.3 Identification of Shortage Cases

- Students falling below the prescribed percentage shall be identified.
- Warning notices shall be issued to such students.

6.4 Parent Communication

- Parents of irregular students shall be informed through:
 - Phone calls
 - Parent-teacher meetings
 - SMS/Email communication
 - Official notices

6.5 Counseling Procedure

- Students with chronic absenteeism shall undergo counseling by mentors/HODs.
- Corrective action plans shall be implemented wherever necessary.

6.6 Verification for Examination Eligibility

- Final attendance records shall be verified before examinations.
- Attendance shortage cases shall be forwarded to the Principal and Examination Cell for necessary action.

6.7 Documentation and Reporting

- Attendance registers and reports shall be maintained systematically.
- Records shall be preserved for academic audit, NAAC, and administrative purposes.

7. Measures for Attendance Improvement

The committee may implement the following measures:

- Mentoring and counseling sessions
- Parent interaction meetings
- Awareness campaigns on academic discipline
- Motivational programmes
- Remedial support for academically weak students
- Continuous monitoring of irregular students

8. Code of Conduct Related to Attendance

Students are expected to:

- Attend classes regularly and punctually.
- Maintain discipline and academic commitment.
- Avoid unnecessary absenteeism.
- Submit leave requests with valid reasons.
- Cooperate with faculty and committee members regarding attendance monitoring.

9. Documentation to be Maintained

The committee shall maintain:

- Class attendance registers
- Subject-wise attendance records
- Monthly attendance reports
- Attendance shortage notices
- Parent communication records
- Counseling records
- Examination eligibility reports
- Minutes of committee meetings

10. NAAC Quality Initiatives

The Attendance Committee supports institutional quality enhancement through:

- Promotion of academic discipline
- Student progression and retention
- Transparent academic monitoring
- Effective mentoring system
- Data maintenance for AQAR and SSR documentation
- Strengthening student accountability and institutional governance

Attendance Requirement

- Students must maintain a minimum of 75% attendance in each subject as prescribed by the affiliating university and institutional regulations.
- Students having attendance below 75% shall be considered as shortage cases and may not be permitted to appear for semester examinations unless permitted under university norms.
- In genuine cases such as medical emergencies or approved institutional participation, attendance relaxation may be considered subject to submission of valid supporting documents and approval by the Principal.
- Students with low attendance shall attend counseling sessions and comply with corrective measures suggested by the Attendance Committee.
- Continuous absenteeism and failure to improve attendance may result in disciplinary action as per college rules.

11. Conclusion

The Attendance Committee of St. Ann's College for Women plays a vital role in maintaining academic discipline, improving student participation, and ensuring compliance with university and institutional regulations. Through systematic monitoring, counseling, and coordination, the committee contributes significantly to academic excellence and holistic student development.