

International Collaborations

St. Ann's College for Women promotes international collaboration through academic partnerships, online interactions, research initiatives, and knowledge-sharing programmes with institutions and organizations across the globe. These collaborations aim to enhance global exposure, academic quality, and cross-cultural learning opportunities for students and faculty.

Focus Areas

- Academic and research collaborations
- International webinars and expert lectures
- Faculty interaction and knowledge exchange
- Student exposure to global learning practices
- Collaborative skill development programmes

The institution encourages global engagement to enrich academic experiences and develop international perspectives among students.
