

2. Internationalization Policy

St. Ann's College for Women is committed to promoting internationalization in higher education by integrating global perspectives into teaching, learning, research, and student development activities.

Objectives

- Promote global academic exposure
- Encourage international collaborations and partnerships
- Enhance cross-cultural understanding and communication
- Support participation in international academic activities
- Develop globally competent graduates

The institution continuously strives to create opportunities that strengthen international academic engagement and global outlook among students and faculty.

View Documents

(Internationalization Policy PDF, Academic Collaboration Reports, Participation Records)