

3. International Accreditations & Memberships

The institution encourages participation in international academic networks, professional bodies, and collaborative educational initiatives to promote quality education and global academic standards.

Major Areas

- Membership in academic and professional associations
- Participation in international academic forums
- Collaboration with global educational platforms
- Online certification and international learning initiatives

These efforts contribute to academic excellence, institutional quality enhancement, and global visibility.

View Documents
(Membership Certificates, Accreditation Documents, International Programme Details)