

8. Cross-Cultural Learning Activities

St. Ann's College for Women promotes cross-cultural learning activities to encourage mutual respect, cultural understanding, and global awareness among students.

Activities

- Cultural exchange programmes
- International days and celebrations
- Language and communication activities
- Awareness programmes on global cultures and values
- Collaborative learning and interaction sessions

Cross-cultural learning activities help students develop inclusiveness, communication skills, and global citizenship values.

 View Documents

(Cultural Activity Reports, Celebration Photos, Participation Certificates)