

5. Global Research Collaborations

The institution encourages faculty members and researchers to participate in collaborative research activities, publications, webinars, and academic discussions with scholars and institutions at national and international levels.

Research Initiatives

- Joint research publications
- Participation in international conferences and seminars
- Collaborative webinars and academic discussions
- Research networking and knowledge exchange

These initiatives promote research culture, innovation, and academic excellence.

View Documents
(Research Publications, Conference Participation Certificates, Webinar Reports)