

7. International Webinars & Conferences

The institution regularly organizes and participates in international webinars, conferences, workshops, and expert sessions to provide exposure to global academic trends and emerging developments.

Key Features

- International expert lectures and talks
- Online global academic interactions
- Research paper presentations
- Emerging technologies and innovation discussions
- Professional and interdisciplinary learning opportunities

These programmes help students and faculty strengthen knowledge, research skills, and global academic engagement.

 View Documents

(Webinar Brochures, Conference Reports, Certificates, Event Photos)