Alumni Meet -2026

Relive....Reconnect.....Rejoice.....A Trip to Nostalgia”

Introduction

St. Ann’s College for Women has always maintained a strong bond with its alumni. The Alumni Association plays a vital role in connecting former students with the institution and contributing to its growth. This report highlights the activities and contributions of alumni during the academic year 2025–2026.

Objectives of Alumni Association

- ✚ To foster a lifelong relationship between alumni and the institution
- ✚ To support students through mentorship and career guidance
- ✚ To organize alumni meets and networking events
- ✚ To enhance institutional development through alumni contributions

Significance of Alumni Meet:

- It helps in strengthening bonds between past and present students.
- Alumni can guide and mentor current students regarding careers and opportunities.
- It enhances the reputation of the institution through successful alumni.
- It provides opportunities for collaboration, internships, and placements.
- It creates a sense of pride, belonging, and unity among all members of the institution

The invitation for the Alumni Meet was thoughtfully designed to warmly welcome all former students back to their alma mater. It conveyed the date, time, venue, and purpose of the gathering, encouraging alumni to reconnect, relive memories, and strengthen their bond with the institution. The invitation reflected a sense of respect, nostalgia, and anticipation, setting a positive tone for the event.

The Alumni Meet badge served as a symbol of identity and belonging for all participants. It helped in easy recognition of alumni and organizers while also representing pride in being part of the institution. The badge added a formal and memorable touch to the event, strengthening the sense of unity among attendees.
