ALUMNI CONTRIBUTION REPORT

Guest Lecture on “Empowering Young Minds”

Theme: “Life Skills for Personal and Professional Excellence”

Date: 25 August 2026 | Time: 11:00 AM

Venue: Gnanam Auditorium, Gnanam Block

As part of the institution's efforts to strengthen Alumni–Institution engagement and student development, a guest lecture titled “Empowering Young Minds – Life Skills for Personal and Professional Excellence” was organized on 25 August 2026 at Gnanam Auditorium.

The programme focused on equipping students with essential life skills, leadership abilities and professional competencies required for their personal growth, academic success and future careers. The session was organized by the Student Counselling Cell in collaboration with IQAC.

The resource person, Dr. Sr. Sowjanya Kumari Mandale, CSSA, M.Th., Ph.D. (Biblical Theology), interacted with the students and addressed important areas such as:

- Decision-making skills
- Time management
- Leadership skills
- Team building
- Conflict resolution
- Communication and interpersonal skills
- Personal confidence and professional effectiveness

The programme provided students with practical insights into handling academic, personal and professional challenges. It encouraged them to develop self-confidence, leadership qualities, teamwork, problem-solving abilities and career readiness.

Outcome / Contribution to Student Development

The initiative contributed to the institution's objective of providing value-added learning and holistic development opportunities beyond the regular curriculum. It strengthened students' preparedness for higher education, employment and professional life.
